What is mustard?

mustard is a global provider of recruitment solutions across the creative design industry. Specialising in Architectural, Interior Design, Events & Exhibition, Marketing, Graphic Design and Visualisation recruitment, mustard operate within a niche sector meaning that all of our consultants are dedicated specialists to their given field.

You will be well suited to this position if you are self-motivated and determined to push towards KPI's and hit personal and professional goals. We are also looking for a tenacious team player who can adapt and change to the different climates of the market.

Responsibilities

You will be conducting research within one of our creative sectors, identifying and engaging with potential clients to develop relationships and create accounts with a variety of creative design practices. You will also be headhunting and networking in order to interview potential candidates to identify the most suitable talent to introduce to your clients in order to solve their recruitment needs.

You will also be responsible for:

- Managing the recruitment process
- Winning new business
- Qualifying suitable candidates
- Pitching potential job offers
- Writing & advertising job opportunities
- Arranging Interviews
- Developing yours (and mustard's) network
- Negotiating terms of agreements and offers
- Collecting information and documents such as CV's, Portfolios, Passports
- Collecting and checking professional references
- Be a compliant recruiter and adhere to the REC code of conduct
- Work in line with the day plan and execute good organisational skills
